 A Chartered State Association of the Electronic Security Association

Any Organization is judged by its past activities and accomplishments. NCESA is proud to its history and its part in accomplishing the following:

- Restriction of rate hikes and telephone company participation in the alarm industry.
- Establishment of regulatory and licensing boards for the industry.
- Education and preparation of members to meet licensing requirements for low voltage licensing.
- Efforts to restrict members from burdensome permits and taxes.
- Provisions of seminars concerning the design of fire protection systems; new products and markets; business management; CCTV applications and design.
- Publication of a quarterly newsletter, which keeps members advised on state and local events that affect the alarm industry.
- New products displays of the major suppliers who establish our associate membership.
- Convention entertainment for members and families.
- Numerous opportunities for exchange of ideas among its membership.

Support the Association that shapes the industry that supports you.

Associate membership is available to companies and individuals who supply goods and services to alarm dealers.

Annual Dues: $250.00

To apply for membership, complete this form and return with first year's dues. Questions regarding membership should be directed to the NCESA at 919.459.2079.
